

- ii. Can the Faculty be notified when incidents of violence occur on campus?
  - 1. Provost: The College is required by law to alert the Ramapo community to violent incidents (

Reasoning categories. GECCo is working really hard; however, we feel that we need more time.

- b. Prof. Anderson (ARC) - Nine courses have been approved so far. ARC has had approximately 80 applications.
- c. Audience Comments.
  - i. Many are concerned that the deadline is insurmountable and is getting in the way of allowing GECCo and ARC to function effectively. Other GECCo members (in the FA audience) expressed their concern that the original timeline is not realistic.
  - ii. Several audience members questioned the need to have Global Awareness category courses approved this fall. They feel that such a requirement is unnecessary.
  - iii. Prof. Kwak reiterated his concerns about the current timeline.
  - iv. Provost: We do not need to approve every course that will eventually comprise each category. If we have 5-10 courses per category, that will be sufficient for now. If a course requires extra reflection time (in terms of approval), GECCo may want to move it to the bottom of the list.
