

Writing Intensive Policy for HGS approved April 24, 2019

Writing Intensive Policy for The School of Health Administration based approved by HGS Unit Council April 24, 2019)

Rationale

Writing Intensive Policy for The School of Health Administration based on HGS effectiveness research conducted for the past several years. The Writing Intensive course is designed to provide students with the opportunity to gain practical experience in writing for the health care field. The course is facilitated by a faculty member who is an expert in the field of health care writing.