

Mandatory EOF Move-In & Summer Studies Institute Kickoff is Friday, July 7. Move-in is available 8:00 am - 11:00 am. The program begins at 11:30 am in the Trustees Pavilion. Please RSVP for yourself and your guests \(up to 2\) through your Admissions Portal.

Classes begin

All EOF Scholars accepted to the college through the EOF Program attend the summer program at no cost for tuition, fees, books, and supplies for the summer program. All summer costs are covered by the EOF Program and the College.

In order to build community and transition to Ramapo College, EOF Scholars are required to live on campus for the summer program in our Pine Hall residence. Students will attend all classes, meetings, and required programs as assigned.

Students are not required to live on campus in the fall/spring semester unless you choose to.

Students are required to stay on campus Monday through Thursday and go home on most Thursday afternoons through Sunday. The exception is the weekend of July 26th - July 28th, all EOF Scholars will remain on campus. Students will have to make arrangements to leave campus on the following Thursdays and return on Sundays:

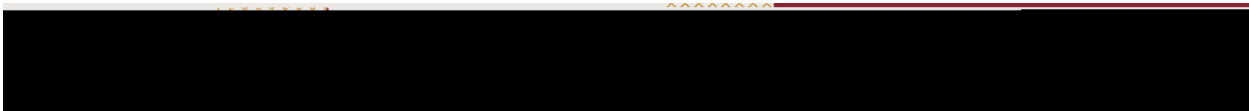

Leave Thursday, July 11/Return Sunday, July 14

Leave Thursday, July 18/Return Sunday, July 21

Leave Thursday, August 1/ Return Sunday, August 4

Last day of the Summer Studies Institute, Thursday, August 8

Most students will take a four-credit academic course: Critical Reading and Writing (CRWT 101 or 102) or Social Science Inquiry (SOSC 110). Both courses are required for all academic majors at the College and will count towards your GPA.

Classes during th

Snacks (Note: You will receive a meal plan for breakfast, lunch, and dinner) Please avoid microwavable popcorn.

Small Iron & Ironing Board

Medical Insurance Card (if you have your own)

Personal Laptop & Charger (campus computer labs are available and we have loaner laptops available if needed).

Cups

Prescription Medicine

tutors, and EOF Advisors. Counseling and Health services will also be available. If you are highly motivated and stay focused, you will have a great EOF summer experience.

Due to the full-day schedule of the summer program, students will not have the availability to work during the week (Monday through Thursday). However, there are no requirements on most Fridays, Saturdays, or Sundays so you can choose to work on those days. The only weekend required to stay on campus is July 26th - July 28th.

YES, in most cases. If you want to change your major from what you originally applied to, you can email admissions@ramapo.edu to get in touch with your admissions counselor to change your major.

NO, first-year students are only required to participate in their first summer prior to starting their first-year at Ramapo College.

Yes, we can provide a parking pass. Note: parking is free in the summer, but if you have a car on campus in the fall/spring

EOF Office: <https://www.ramapo.edu/eof-program/>

Financial AÂ

